History

Our good friend Esrin Hedman was diagnosed with a rare form of cancer called Mass Cell Leukemia. In the summer of 2009 her battle with cancer began and unfortunately ended just two months later. As distraught as her family and friends are over this loss it has now become a cherished time to love and remember this amazing daughter, sister, friend, and great love. We may not have the cure for cancer but from this great tragedy our hope is that we can gain more information and insight on this catastrophic illness which may help others find a cure.

Mission

We are dedicated to creating and maintaining a strong support system and positively changing lives in the face tragedy.
